

Law Society CPD Credits

The Law Society of British Columbia has pre-approved the following HEABC workshops and webinars for Continuing Professional Development (CPD) credit:

Webinar Title	Course Date
DTA 1 – What is Duty to Accommodate	Feb 5, 2015
DTA 2 – Duty to Accommodate Process	Feb 12, 2015
Current Practices in Attendance Management	March 19, 2015
Current Practices in Attendance Management	June 9, 2015
Workplace Bullying & Harassment	March 26, 2015
Workplace Bullying & Harassment	June 3, 2015
Grievance 1 – Overview of the Grievance Process	April 9, 2015
Grievance 2 – Resolving Grievances at Steps 1, 2 and 3	April 16, 2015
Grievance 3 – Settlements and Third Party Processes	April 23, 2015
Managing the Selection Process 1 – I Have a Vacancy...Now What?	April 30, 2015
Managing the Selection Process 2 – Selection in the Health Care Sector	May 7, 2015
Managing the Selection Process 3 – Preparing to Hire	May 14, 2015
Managing the Selection Process 4 – Hiring the Right Candidate	May 21, 2015
Discipline 1 – Overview of the Discipline Process	May 28, 2015
Discipline 2 – Conducting Disciplinary Investigations	June 4, 2015
Discipline 3 – Implementing Discipline	June 11, 2015

How to claim your CPD credit

To claim CPD credits, log in to the Law Society website and search for the HEABC course you would like to report.

HEABC members who are not practicing BC lawyers but have a certification with another professional association that has a continuing professional development component (e.g., CHRP, CGA, CMA, PMP, etc.), may also be eligible to use their HEABC workshop/webinar attendance for credit. Check with your professional association for confirmation.

Please see next page for pre-approved workshops.

Workshop Title	Course Date
Managing the Discipline Process	February 10
Managing the Selection Process	March 3
Managing the Grievance Process	March 11
Labour Relations 101 (Day 1)	April 20
Labour Relations 101 (Day 2)	April 21
Conducting Effective Investigations	May 12
Duty to Accommodate	May 20